

LOCOMOTIVE BOILER EE-1137

The model is especially designed to understand the working of a locomotive steam boiler. The steel shell is of about 20 cm dia and 60cm in length the fire box is provided with a door and grate. The fire tubes enter the smoke box with a door, bozzle and the blast pipe. The model is approximately 100cm in length 45cm. high and 35cm in breadth and is complete with whistle, steam dome, safety valve, check valve, steam regulator water and steam gauges.

